Kids dive into reading

Memorial Library kicks off summer reading programs

Local Memorial Library kicked off its summer reading program for children on Friday, June 7. The program is designed to encourage children to read during the summer months. The program includes a variety of activities, including story time, book clubs, and reading challenges. The library is open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on weekdays and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturdays. For more information, visit www.memoriallibrary.org.

Students from Mount Carmel Community College's Community School are participating in a reading program at the Memorial Library.

Brian Weber resigning later this month

Deputy Mayor Brian Weber announced his resignation from the City of Chicago on Friday, June 7. Weber has served as Deputy Mayor since 2011. He will be leaving his position at the end of the month. The City of Chicago is currently searching for a replacement.

WANTED: More day care facilities

There is a growing need for more day care facilities in the Chicago area. The current shortage of day care spots is causing many parents to struggle to find care for their children. The City of Chicago is working to address this issue by encouraging the development of new day care facilities. Parents are encouraged to contact the City of Chicago for more information.

Children are encouraged to play with colorful blocks at the Memorial Library.
