Memorial Library kicks off summer reading programs

Local Memorial Library kicked off its summer reading program on Friday, June 7, with a special event at the library. The program is designed to encourage children to read during the summer months. The library has a variety of books and activities for children of all ages. The program will run through August 31. For more information, visit www.memoriallibrary.org.

Students from Mount Carmel Community College's Community School are participating in a reading program at the Memorial Library.

Brian Weber resigning later this month

Deputy Mayor Brian Weber announced his resignation from the city of Chicago on Friday, June 7. Weber has worked for the city for over 10 years. He will be leaving the city to pursue other opportunities. The city will be looking for a replacement in the coming months.

WANTED: More day care facilities

There is a growing need for more day care facilities in the city of Chicago. The city is currently facing a shortage of day care spots, which is making it difficult for many families to find care for their children. The city is looking for ways to increase the number of day care facilities and to improve the quality of care. This is a top priority for the city and its residents.

Young children benefit from quality day care facilities.
