Kids dive into reading

Memorial Library kicks off summer reading programs

Local Memorial Library kicked off its summer reading program for children on Friday, June 7. The program is designed to encourage children to read during the summer months. The library offers a variety of activities, including story time, book clubs, and reading challenges. Children can earn points for books they read and participate in contests. The program runs through August 31. For more information, visit www.memoriallibrary.org.

Brian Weber resigning later this month

Deputy Mayor Brian Weber announced his resignation from the City of Chicago on Friday, June 7. Weber has served as Deputy Mayor since 2011. He will be leaving his position at the end of the month. The City of Chicago is currently searching for a replacement. For more information, visit www.chicago.gov.

WANTED: More day care facilities

There is a significant need for more day care facilities in the Chicago area. The current supply is insufficient to meet the demand, particularly in low-income neighborhoods. Community groups and policymakers are working to address this issue by advocating for increased funding and incentives for day care providers. The goal is to ensure that all children have access to quality day care. For more information, visit www.chicago.gov.
