Memorial Library kicks off summer reading programs

Local Memorial Library kicked off its summer reading program for children on Friday, June 7. The program is designed to encourage children to read during the summer months. The library offers a variety of activities, including story time, book clubs, and reading challenges. The program runs from June 7 to August 31. For more information, visit www.memoriallibrary.org.

Brian Weber resigning later this month

Deputy Mayor Brian Weber announced his resignation from the City of Chicago on Friday, June 7. Weber has served as Deputy Mayor since 2011. He will be leaving his position at the end of the month. The City of Chicago is currently searching for a replacement.

WANTED: More day care facilities

As the number of children in day care continues to grow, the need for more facilities is becoming increasingly apparent. The City of Chicago is currently reviewing options to address this issue. This includes exploring new locations and expanding existing facilities. The goal is to ensure that all children have access to quality day care.
