Kids dive into reading

Memorial Library kicks off summer reading programs

Local Memorial Library kicked off its summer reading program for children on Friday, June 7. The program is designed to encourage children to read during the summer months. The library has a variety of books and activities for children of all ages. The program will run through August 31. For more information, visit www.memoriallibrary.org.

Children and adults participate in a reading activity at the Memorial Library.

Brian Weber resigning later this month

Mayor Weber to step down

Mayor Brian Weber announced that he will be resigning from his position as Mayor of Chicago later this month. He will be replaced by Mayor Rahm Emanuel. Weber has served as Mayor since 2011. He will continue to work with the city government during his transition.

WANTED: More day care facilities

Parents seek more options for children

Parents are looking for more day care facilities in their neighborhoods. The current supply of day care is insufficient to meet the demand. Parents want more options for their children, including more hours and more affordable care. The city government is working to address these needs by building more day care centers.
