Wichita to debate exemption of state's gun ordinance

Wichita, Kan., is set to debate whether to exempt the city from a state law that prohibits cities from passing gun safety ordinances. The city council will vote on the issue on June 17, 2013. The state law, known as the "Preemption Act," prohibits cities from passing any ordinance that is more restrictive than the state's gun laws. The city council is divided on the issue, with some members favoring the exemption and others opposing it. The city council will hold a public hearing on the issue before the vote.
