Wheatridge residents to host puzzle auction, craft sale Saturday

The residents at Wheatridge are hosting a puzzle auction and craft sale in the dining room from 2 to 3 p.m. Saturday. There will be an assortment of handmade crafts by our residents, including garden markers, decorative pots and eyeglass cases. There will also be puzzles for sale that will be auctioned off to bid on in our silent auction, so be sure to come look around and meet the crafters.

All proceeds will benefit resident activities. For more information, contact Jenna McGovern, Life Enrichment Coordinator, at 624-6128.

Celebrating a century of the 5-State Fair

Horse racing was popular in postwar Liberal. Held at the fairgrounds, the races were run around the oval race used for automobile racing. Jockey Waddie Bragg Davis was a popular regular. In her career of more than 30 years, she rode more than 3,000 winners, including 300 in one year and was considered one of the best. Photo courtesy Lula Nicole Craig Local Talent and Events Calendar
