State explains Lexis Law concerning day care regulations
 The Kansas Department of Social Services (DSS) has issued a new regulation regarding day care licensing. The regulation is designed to ensure the safety and well-being of children in day care facilities. The regulation requires day care facilities to meet certain standards for safety, health, and nutrition. The regulation also requires day care facilities to have certain staff qualifications and training. The regulation is effective as of June 1, 2013.
