A Nielsen survey says Liberal is third in the nation for eatery growth potential
 Liberal, Kan., has been named the nation's third most promising market for new restaurants, according to a Nielsen survey. The survey ranked 100 cities based on factors such as population, income, and the number of existing restaurants. Liberal, with a population of 12,000, ranked third behind San Antonio and San Diego. The survey also found that Liberal has a high percentage of young adults, which is a key demographic for many restaurants.

State explains Lexis Law concerning day care regulations
 The Kansas Department of Social Services has issued a new regulation regarding day care licensing. The regulation, known as Lexis Law, outlines the requirements for day care facilities, including staff-to-child ratios, facility safety, and health and safety standards. The regulation is designed to ensure the highest quality of care for children in day care facilities. The Department of Social Services is committed to providing a safe and nurturing environment for all children in the state.
