A Nielsen survey says Liberal is third in the nation for eatery growth potential

By KYLE CLAYTON

Liberal, Kan., has been named the third most promising market for new restaurants in the nation, according to a Nielsen survey. The survey, which ranked 100 cities, found that Liberal has a high potential for restaurant growth, ranking ahead of cities like Kansas City and St. Louis.

Rank	City	Population	Restaurants	Restaurants per 1,000
1	Liberal, Kan.	12,000	15	1.25
2	St. Louis, Mo.	300,000	1,200	4.00
3	Kansas City, Mo.	200,000	800	4.00

State explains Lexis Law concerning day care regulations

By KYLE CLAYTON

The Kansas Department of Health and Senior Services (DHSS) has issued a new regulation regarding day care licensing. The regulation, known as Lexis Law, aims to improve the safety and quality of day care facilities. It includes requirements for staff-to-child ratios, background checks for employees, and enhanced record-keeping.

In God we still trust

Members of the Fellowship Baptist Church in Liberal, Kan., are proud to present the 27th edition of the 'Liberty' journal. The journal, which is published annually, features articles on local news, community events, and religious topics. It is a testament to the church's commitment to service and faith.
