A Nielsen survey says Liberal is third in the nation for eatery growth potential

By KYLE CLAYTON

Liberal, Mo., is the third most desirable city in the nation for new restaurant development, according to a Nielsen survey released last week. The survey ranked 100 cities based on their economic growth, job growth, population growth, and quality of life. Liberal ranked 10th in the nation for overall quality of life, but 3rd for restaurant growth potential.

State explains Lexis Law concerning day care regulations

By KYLE CLAYTON

The Kansas Department of Health and Senior Services (DHSS) has issued a new regulation regarding day care centers. The regulation, effective July 1, 2013, requires day care centers to have a minimum of 100 square feet of space per child. The regulation also requires day care centers to have a minimum of 100 square feet of space per child for sleeping quarters.
