4-H Shooting Sports Club taking enrollments for archery course

The Seward County 4-H Shooting Sports Club is taking enrollments for its archery course, through 8 to its archery course, where students will learn 4-H competition archery and archery safety with a state-certified instructor. The course will start off with an equipment and safety introduction at 5:30 p.m. Thursday, July 11, at the State Extension office at 1700 Stadium Road in Liberal.

The course is free and all equipment will be furnished. Youngsters may bring their own equipment, which will be inspected and/or approved for use by the course instructor. The course will be limited to 20 children, and it is expected to run every Monday and Thursday for four weeks. For more information, drop by the Extension office or call Larry Phillips at 620-4527.
