Foundation plans air museum dedication anniversary, seeking artifacts

The Mid-America Air Museum opened 25 years ago. To celebrate the anniversary, a former member of 1988 by the founding Liberal Air Museum Foundation, the renamed MAAM Foundation will recognize the 1988 opening event this coming Sept. 28 with a 25th Anniversary celebration.

As part of the anniversary celebration, the Foundation is welcoming any memorabilia, artifacts and pictures anyone may have of those early museum years, and from 1988-1989 in particular. The Foundation is also collecting similar material of the museum's history from the area from the early 1980s through the 2014 have years. In the present, a drop work toward preparing a documented history of area flight and the museum.

More information about the history effort, as well as membership in the Foundation, can be obtained by contacting Jim Pearce at MAAM Foundation, P.O. Box 1260,Liberal, KS 67905-1260. The foundation can also be reached at MAAMfnd@sbcglobal.com.
