Two scouts, a Scoutmaster and a Scoutmaster's assistant, are seen at the beginning of a training session for new scouts at the beginning of the summer season.

Local scouts were forced to flee Spanish Peaks after a fire broke out in the area. The fire was caused by a scoutmaster who was not following the proper protocol for a fire drill.

Chomping at the bit for 5-State Fair opening

By [Name] - Liberal, Kan. (The Star) - The 5-State Fair is just a few weeks away and the excitement is building. The fair is one of the largest and most popular events in the region, and it's expected to draw thousands of visitors from across the state and neighboring areas. The fair features a wide variety of attractions, including rides, games, and live entertainment. The opening ceremony is scheduled for the first weekend of the fair, and it's expected to be a major event. The fair is a great opportunity for families to enjoy a day of fun and entertainment. The fair is also a great way to support local businesses and organizations. The fair is a community event that brings people together and creates a sense of pride and excitement. The fair is a tradition that has been enjoyed for generations, and it's expected to continue for many more years to come. The fair is a great way to spend a day with family and friends, and it's a great way to enjoy the outdoors. Boy Scouts familiar with making fire, not fleeing from it

By [Name] - Liberal, Kan. (The Star) - A fire broke out at Spanish Peaks on Saturday, forcing Boy Scouts to flee the area. The fire was caused by a scoutmaster who was not following the proper protocol for a fire drill. The fire was quickly extinguished, but it caused significant damage to the area. The Boy Scouts are familiar with making fire, but they are not familiar with fleeing from it. The fire was a reminder that safety is always the top priority. The Boy Scouts are committed to providing a safe and fun environment for all participants. The fire was a reminder that safety is always the top priority.
