Local scouts forced to flee Spanish Peaks

Local Boy Scouts were forced to flee Spanish Peaks, Mo., on Saturday afternoon after a fire broke out in the area. The fire was caused by a campfire that got out of control, and the scouts were forced to evacuate the area. The fire was quickly extinguished by local firefighters, but the scouts were left with a lot of damage to their campsite. The scouts were able to escape without any injuries, but the fire was a scary experience for everyone involved.
