Local scouts forced to flee Spanish Peaks

Local Scouts and their families fled Spanish Peaks, Colo., after a fire broke out in the town's historic district. The fire, which started in a building, quickly spread to nearby structures, forcing residents to evacuate. Firefighters arrived on the scene but were unable to contain the fire, which eventually burned out of control. The cause of the fire is still under investigation.

Chomping at the bit for 5-State Fair opening

The annual 5-State Fair is set to open in Liberal, Kan., on Sunday, July 1, at the fairgrounds. The fair is a major event in the community, featuring a variety of exhibits, performances, and activities. The opening ceremony will be held at 10 a.m., with the fair gates opening at 11 a.m. The fair is expected to run through August 4, with a final day of celebration on August 5. The fair is a great opportunity for families to enjoy a day of fun and entertainment.

'Reunited, and it feels so good'

After a long separation, a group of former students from Liberal High School has reunited. The group, which includes graduates from the 1950s and 1960s, met for a reunion at the school. The reunion was a heartwarming event, with many former classmates catching up on old times and sharing stories. The school is proud to have these former students back and is looking forward to future reunions.
