City discusses robotics grant, bids farewell to Joe Seakley
 By MICHELE CHRISTENSEN
 Liberal, Kan. — The Liberal City Council met Monday night to discuss a grant for a robotics program and to bid farewell to Joe Seakley, the city's first mayor. The council discussed a grant from the Kansas State Department of Education for a robotics program at the city's high school. The grant will be used to purchase equipment and hire a teacher. The council also discussed the resignation of Joe Seakley, who served as mayor from 2008 to 2012. The council will meet again on July 23.
