Kansas man convicted of kicking girlfriend to death

WICHITA, Kan. — A Kansas man who kicked his girlfriend to death was sentenced to life in prison with the possibility of parole after a jury found him guilty of first-degree murder.

The man, 34, was charged with the murder of his 26-year-old girlfriend, who was found dead in a wooded area near their home in December 2011. The man had a long history of domestic violence against his girlfriend.

The judge sentenced the man to life in prison with the possibility of parole after 25 years. The man's attorney said he will appeal the sentence.
