Republicans to tackle cuts in food stamp program

By AP/WIDE WORLD

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Republicans on Sunday are expected to vote on a bill to cut federal spending on food stamps. The bill would reduce the amount of money that the federal government spends on food stamps by about $10 billion over the next five years. The bill would also require states to match the federal government's contribution to the program.

Bazaar Days to offer more than just bargains

By AP/WIDE WORLD

LIBERAL, Kan. (AP) — Bazaar Days, the annual fundraising event for the American Cancer Society, is set to begin on Sunday. The event will feature a variety of activities, including a 5K run, a golf tournament, and a silent auction. The American Cancer Society is a national organization that works to prevent, detect, and cure cancer.
