Republicans to tackle cuts in food stamp program

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Republicans on Saturday announced they will introduce legislation to cut the federal food stamp program by 10 percent over the next five years. The bill, known as the Budget Control Act, is part of a larger effort to reduce federal spending and address the national debt. The cuts are expected to affect millions of low-income Americans who rely on the program for food assistance.

Bazaar Days to offer more than just bargains
