Republicans to tackle cuts in food stamp program

WASHINGTON — The House of Representatives is expected to vote on a bill that would cut the number of people who qualify for food stamps. The bill is part of a larger effort to reduce federal spending and is expected to be passed in the coming weeks. The cuts would affect approximately 10 million people nationwide.

Bazaar Days to offer more than just bargains

Despite the challenges of a difficult economy in the 2013 Bazaar Days in the 40th Anniversary Bazaar, the event is expected to be a success. The bazaar will feature a wide variety of goods, including clothing, home decor, and food. The event is a popular annual tradition in the community and is expected to draw thousands of visitors.
