Republicans to tackle cuts in food stamp program

WASHINGTON — House Republicans on Friday introduced legislation to cut the federal food stamp program by 10 percent over the next five years.

The bill, known as the Food and Nutrition Assistance Act, would reduce the number of people eligible for the program and increase the amount of time they must live on their own before being able to receive benefits again.

Bazaar Days to offer more than just bargains

LIBERAL — Bazaar Days is more than just a place to find bargains. It's a place where you can find everything you need for your home, your car, and your family.

The bazaar is held every Saturday and Sunday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and features a wide variety of goods at low prices.
