Former Liberal resident shares her message of healing hope
Lynne Chapman, a former Liberal resident, shares her message of healing hope. Chapman, who was born in Liberal, moved to the area in 1980. She has since become a prominent figure in the community, serving as a member of the Liberal Chamber of Commerce and as a volunteer for various local organizations. Her story is one of resilience and hope, as she has overcome personal challenges and dedicated herself to helping others in need.

SATURDAY
Chamber to host Legislative Breakfast discussion
The Liberal Chamber of Commerce is hosting a Legislative Breakfast discussion on Saturday, July 20, at 8:30 a.m. The event will feature a panel of local business leaders and community members who will discuss the impact of recent legislative changes on the local economy and community. The breakfast will be held at the Liberal Chamber of Commerce, 100 Main Street, Liberal, B.C. Tickets are free, and the event is open to all community members.

THURSDAY
Learn how to eat healthy, be active
The health and wellness committee is hosting a "Learn how to eat healthy, be active" workshop on Thursday, July 18, at 6:30 p.m. The workshop will focus on providing practical tips and strategies for incorporating healthy eating and physical activity into daily life. The event will be held at the Liberal Chamber of Commerce, 100 Main Street, Liberal, B.C. The cost is $5 per person, and reservations are required. For more information, contact the health and wellness committee at (250) 483-1234.

Plans for wind farm put on hold

Plans for a wind farm in the area have been put on hold. The project, which was initially planned to be a 10-turbine facility, has been delayed due to various factors, including regulatory hurdles and local opposition. The developers are currently reviewing the project and exploring alternative sites. The local community has expressed concerns about the potential impact of the wind farm on the environment and local agriculture. The developers are working to address these concerns and seek approval from the relevant authorities.
