Community to honor military at Veteran's Appreciation Ceremony at 5-State Fair

By Larry Phillips
 A group of about 100 people gathered at the 5-State Fairgrounds in Topeka, Kan., on Saturday, July 27, to honor the military community. The event was a joint effort by the fair's organizers and the local Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) Post 12345. The ceremony featured a keynote address by VFW Post Commander John Smith, who spoke about the sacrifices made by military personnel and their families. The event also included a presentation of a plaque to the fair's organizers, a musical performance by a local band, and a reception for the attendees. The fair's organizers expressed their appreciation for the military community and their commitment to providing a safe and enjoyable environment for all attendees.

There is no sound curfew at fairs during the 5-State Fair by county resolution

The county board has passed a resolution that there will be no sound curfew at fairs during the 5-State Fair. The resolution was passed by a unanimous vote of the board. The board believes that the 5-State Fair is a major economic and cultural event for the region and that it is important to provide a safe and enjoyable environment for all attendees. The board also believes that the absence of a sound curfew will help to attract more attendees to the fair and to support the local economy. The resolution will be in effect for the duration of the 5-State Fair.
