Community to honor military at Veteran's Appreciation Ceremony at 5-State Fair

By Susan Stone

It's a tradition that dates back to the early 1900s. The 5-State Fair, which is held in Topeka, Kansas, has a long history of honoring military veterans. This year, the fair will host a Veteran's Appreciation Ceremony on Saturday, July 27, at 10 a.m. The ceremony will be held in the main arena of the fairgrounds.

The fair is a celebration of the state's rich agricultural heritage. It features a wide variety of exhibits, including livestock shows, craft fairs, and educational programs. The fairgrounds are also home to a number of other events, including a rodeo and a horse show.

The fair is a great place to enjoy the outdoors and spend time with family and friends. It is a wonderful opportunity to learn more about the state's history and culture. The fair is open to everyone and is a truly inclusive event.
