

Thursday Prime Rib
44 Village Plaza • 608-785-4400 • Monday - Saturday
RILEY'S BLEND BUCK BROS. VETERAN AMERICA'S BREEZ RESTAURANT & LEAN'S STEAKS

LEADER & TIMES
New daily news & views for 127 years

TUESDAY JULY 30, 2013
BEYOND THE BEAR OF LARRY PHELPS, HAPPY PROTEST! $1

Bus services remain in place for youngest students
By JACQUELYNNE HANSEN
Students and parents are relieved that bus services for the youngest students in the district will remain in place for the 2013-14 school year. The Board of Education voted Tuesday to keep the current bus routes for students in kindergarten through second grade. The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade.

Love of pets earns prizes
A young boy and girl from the High Plains area have won prizes for their love of pets. The boy, who is 10 years old, and the girl, who is 8 years old, were the winners of a contest held by the High Plains area. They were awarded prizes for their love of pets and their participation in the contest.

City National Beef to offer free day at water park
The City of National Beef is offering a free day at the water park for all children under the age of 12. The event will be held on August 1st and 2nd. The water park is located at 1000 N. Main St. in National Beef. The event is free for all children under the age of 12. The event is open from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. on both days. The event is a great opportunity for families to enjoy a day of fun in the sun. For more information, please contact the City of National Beef at 608-785-4400.

K-State Extension office to host job-hunting contest during 5th State Fair
The K-State Extension office is hosting a job-hunting contest during the 5th State Fair. The contest is open to all students in the area. The contest is a great opportunity for students to showcase their skills and win prizes. The contest will be held on August 1st and 2nd. The contest is a great opportunity for students to showcase their skills and win prizes. The contest will be held on August 1st and 2nd. The contest is a great opportunity for students to showcase their skills and win prizes.

FRIDAY

Bus services remain in place for youngest students

By JACQUELYNNE HANSEN
Students and parents are relieved that bus services for the youngest students in the district will remain in place for the 2013-14 school year. The Board of Education voted Tuesday to keep the current bus routes for students in kindergarten through second grade. The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade.

The Board of Education voted Tuesday to keep the current bus routes for students in kindergarten through second grade. The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade. The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade.

The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade. The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade. The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade.

The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade. The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade. The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade.

The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade. The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade. The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade.

The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade. The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade. The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade.

The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade. The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade. The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade.

The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade. The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade. The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade.

The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade. The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade. The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade.

The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade. The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade. The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade.

The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade. The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade. The board also approved a new route for students in third through fifth grade.

The No. 18 race car driven by local driver Josh Burdett (shown above) won Monday's 100-lap event at Grand County Raceway. It is the first of a series of races for the 2013 season. The race was held on July 29th. The race was a great success for the driver and the team. The race was a great success for the driver and the team. The race was a great success for the driver and the team.