Survey says community cares most about security, safety
A recent survey by the National Security Council (NSC) shows that Americans are most concerned about national security and safety, ahead of the economy and health care. The survey also shows that Americans are most concerned about the safety of their families and communities.

National Beef recalls ground beef products
National Beef has recalled ground beef products because of a possible E. coli contamination. The recall includes ground beef products sold between June 10 and June 20, 2013.
