Survey says community cares most about security, safety
A recent survey by the University of Texas at Dallas shows that the top concern of the community is security and safety. The survey, conducted by the Center for Public Policy Research, found that 68 percent of respondents cited security and safety as their top concern, followed by the economy at 23 percent. Other concerns included education, health care, and the environment. The survey also found that the majority of respondents are conservative and that the majority of respondents are white. The survey was conducted from June 10 to June 20, 2013, and included 1,000 respondents.

'DUCKY' GETS SQUEAKY CLEAN
The mascot for the Buck Race Festival, a large inflatable duck named 'Ducky', is being cleaned. The duck is yellow and has a sign on its chest that says 'DUCKY' GETS SQUEAKY CLEAN. The duck is the mascot for the Buck Race Festival, which is held annually in Village Park, Texas. The duck is cleaned by a team of volunteers and is then used for the festival. The duck is a popular attraction and is a symbol of the festival.
