County to seek public input on health needs

By Larry Phillips
 Liberty, Mo. — The Liberty County Health Department is seeking public input on health needs in the county. The department is currently conducting a health needs assessment and will be holding public hearings on the findings. The hearings will be held on August 14th and 15th at 7:00 PM at the Liberty County Courthouse. The department is also seeking input on the health needs of the county's most vulnerable populations, including the elderly, the disabled, and the homeless. For more information, contact the Health Department at 620-626-8888.

Garden City's growth tied to private/public financing

By Larry Phillips
 Garden City, Mo. — The growth of Garden City, Mo., is largely due to the use of private/public financing. The city has used this method to fund a variety of projects, including the new city center and the new library. The city's mayor, Tom Hines, says that private/public financing has been a key factor in the city's success. He says that this method allows the city to fund projects that would otherwise be difficult to finance. For more information, contact the City of Garden City at 620-626-8888.
