Kan. Board of Regents mulls concealed carry study

The Kansas Board of Regents is considering a study to determine whether the state should allow concealed carry of handguns. The board is currently reviewing a report from the Kansas State Police and the Kansas State Bar Association. The study will look at the impact of concealed carry on public safety and the economy. The board is expected to make a decision on whether to proceed with the study in the next few months.

Volunteer Fair and barbecue set for Thursday at Light Park

The annual Volunteer Fair and Barbecue is set for Thursday, August 15, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Light Park in Lawrence, Kan. The event is free and open to the public. It will feature a variety of booths, including one for the American Red Cross, and a barbecue lunch. The fair is a great opportunity for volunteers to meet and get involved in their community.

COLLEGE WELCOMES FRESH MONDAY, ALL STUDENTS TUESDAY

Lawrence University is excited to welcome its new students to campus. Freshmen will arrive on Monday, August 19, and all students will arrive on Tuesday, August 20. The university is providing a variety of resources to help students get settled, including orientation programs and support services. The campus is looking forward to a successful and enjoyable year.
