

TASTE OF CHINA
LUNCH SPECIALS
10% OFF
MON-FRI 11:30-2:30

Property or pennies?

School, city begin discussion

Should school funding choices be in voters' hands?

City Mayor Dan Higgins and City Manager Bill DeBartolo are looking for ways to fund the city's schools. Higgins says the city is looking for ways to fund the city's schools. DeBartolo says the city is looking for ways to fund the city's schools.

By Mike Malarkey
City Manager Bill DeBartolo
Mayor Dan Higgins

Millions of viewers flocking to 'DUCK DYNASTY'

BY MICHAEL O'NEILL

The reality show featuring the Robertson family has become a major hit on the Discovery Channel. The show follows the family as they manage their duck farming empire in the marshes of Louisiana.

LEADER & TIMES

Keating

CONCRETE Law & Garden

OPINION, 4A

County Commission reschedules Monday's meeting

Seaward County

Seaward County Commissioner Tom Brown announced that the county commission meeting scheduled for Monday, August 19, will be rescheduled to Tuesday, August 20, at 7:30 a.m. The meeting will be held in the Seaward County Courthouse.

By Mike Malarkey
Tom Brown

Report: NSA spying broke privacy rules many times

GOLDEN PLAINS MAINTAINS SUPPORT FOR ROBOTICS

Golden Plains High School students are participating in a robotics competition. The school has a strong tradition of supporting robotics and other extracurricular activities.

By Mike Malarkey
Golden Plains High School

Happy Birthday, Bruce C. [Name]