

TASTE OF CHINA
 SAT IN THE CARRY OUT

CELEBRATE ALL WEEKENDS 10%
LUNCH SPECIALS DINNER SPECIALS

MON - FRI 11:30 - 10:00 • WEDNESDAY - 10:00 - 10:00
 1800 S. GARDEN ST. ST. LOUIS • (314) 866-8888

Property or pennies?
 School, city begin discussion

By Mike C. Higgins and Greg Anderson Staff Writers

City Mayor Clay Higgins and Gov. Warren East have begun a discussion about how to fund the new school district that will be formed by the merger of the city and county school districts. The city and county school districts are currently funded by property taxes, but the new district will need to find a way to raise the money to cover the cost of the new schools. The city and county school districts are currently funded by property taxes, but the new district will need to find a way to raise the money to cover the cost of the new schools.

Should school funding choices be in voters' hands?

By Mike C. Higgins Staff Writer

The city and county school districts are currently funded by property taxes, but the new district will need to find a way to raise the money to cover the cost of the new schools. The city and county school districts are currently funded by property taxes, but the new district will need to find a way to raise the money to cover the cost of the new schools.

Millions of viewers flocking to 'DUCK DYNASTY'

By Mike C. Higgins Staff Writer

The reality show "Duck Dynasty" has become a massive success story for the Discovery Channel. The show, which follows the lives of the Robertson family, has become a household name. The show, which follows the lives of the Robertson family, has become a household name.

CONCEALED AGENDA?
 Reports take shots at new law

By Mike C. Higgins Staff Writer

The new law regarding concealed carry has been met with mixed reactions. Some people support the law, while others are concerned about the potential for violence. The new law regarding concealed carry has been met with mixed reactions.

LEADER & TIMES
 Your daily news & views for $27.95/week

Keating
 Lawn & Garden
 Fertilizer
 Mulch
 Shredded Leaves

County Commission reschedules Monday's meeting

By Mike C. Higgins Staff Writer

The County Commission has decided to reschedule its meeting for Monday. The new date will be announced in the coming days. The County Commission has decided to reschedule its meeting for Monday.

Report: NSA spying broke privacy rules many times

By Mike C. Higgins Staff Writer

A report from the Senate Intelligence Committee has found that the NSA has broken privacy rules many times. The report, which was released last week, found that the NSA has broken privacy rules many times.

GOLDEN PLAINS MAINTAINS SUPPORT FOR ROBOTICS

By Mike C. Higgins Staff Writer

The Golden Plains School District has announced that it will continue to support its robotics program. The district has announced that it will continue to support its robotics program.

Corn crop yields 4-headed ear

By Mike C. Higgins Staff Writer

A farmer in Golden Plains has harvested a corn ear with four heads. The farmer, who has been growing corn for many years, was surprised by the discovery. The farmer, who has been growing corn for many years, was surprised by the discovery.

Sevier County

