US-56 project through Stevens, Seward, Haskell counties starts
By David B. Smith
TUCSON — The Bureau of Reclamation is starting a $1.2-billion project to improve the water supply in Stevens, Seward, and Haskell counties. The project, known as the US-56 project, will involve the construction of a new dam and the installation of a new water treatment plant. The project is expected to be completed in 2015. The project will provide a reliable water supply for the region and will also improve the water quality. The project is a major investment in the water infrastructure of the region.

Random attack in Spokane leaves WWII veteran dead
By Matt Johnson
SPOKANE, Wash. (AP) — A random attack on a Spokane street on Tuesday left a World War II veteran dead and several others injured. The attack occurred in the downtown area of Spokane. The victim, a 72-year-old man, was shot in the chest. He was taken to a hospital but died of his wounds. The attacker, a 21-year-old man, was shot and arrested. The police are still investigating the motive for the attack. The attack is a tragic reminder of the dangers of random violence.
