

700 PLUS
BUCK BBS

Diplomacy is the art of saying good doggie while looking for a bigger stick.
Come watch Mayor Sherri's Children with Wildlife & Sports Night on the main stage at 7:00 p.m. on the 26th at the Kismet Fairgrounds.

a day in the life of a fireman
To be physically prepared to respond, firefighters work to stay in shape.

LYFE in the park

That Band in Perryton

Little World's Fair coming to Kismet

Cimarron River Valley on horseback

MONDAY AUGUST 26, 2013

LEADER & TIMES

Your daily news & views for 127 years

Meeting tonight for parents of LHS seniors

The school will host a meeting for parents of LHS seniors on Monday, Aug. 26, at 7 p.m. in the school cafeteria. The meeting is for parents of seniors who are planning to attend college or graduate school. The school will provide information on the application process, financial aid, and other resources. The meeting is free and open to all parents of LHS seniors.

American Legion suspects it was targeted by IRS

The American Legion in Perryton, Texas, is suspecting it was targeted by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) after receiving a letter from the agency. The letter stated that the Legion was in violation of the law and that it was being investigated. The Legion is currently working with the IRS to resolve the issue. The Legion is a 501(c)(6) organization and is not a tax-exempt organization. The Legion is currently working with the IRS to resolve the issue.

Kansas law enforcement cracking down through Labor Day

Kansas law enforcement is cracking down on drunk driving through Labor Day. The Kansas Department of Transportation (KDOT) is working with law enforcement agencies to reduce the number of drunk driving accidents. KDOT is providing information on the consequences of drunk driving and the importance of staying sober. Law enforcement agencies are conducting sobriety checkpoints and other enforcement activities. The goal is to reduce the number of drunk driving accidents and fatalities.

NSA admits rare willful surveillance violations

The National Security Agency (NSA) has admitted to rare willful surveillance violations. The agency stated that it had received reports of willful violations of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act (FISA) and that it had conducted an investigation. The investigation found that there were a few instances of willful violations. The agency stated that it had taken steps to prevent such violations in the future. The agency is currently working with the Department of Justice to resolve the violations.

