

DIplomacy is the art of saying good doggie while looking for a bigger stick.
Come watch Mayor Sheriff's Children with Wildlife Services. Wildlife Services is a non-profit organization that provides wildlife management services to local governments.

a day in the life of a fireman
To be physically prepared to respond, firefighters work to stay in shape.

LYFE in the park
The "LYFE" band is performing at the park.

That Band in Perryton
The band is performing in Perryton.

Little World's Fair coming to Kismet
The fair is coming to Kismet.

Cimarron River Valley on horseback
A group of people are riding horses in the Cimarron River Valley.

MONDAY AUGUST 26, 2013
LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & views for 127 years

Meeting tonight for parents of LHS seniors
The school will hold a meeting for the parents of LHS seniors on Monday, August 26, 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria. The meeting is for parents of seniors who are planning to attend college in the fall. The school will provide information on the college process, including how to apply, how to choose a college, and how to pay for college. The meeting is free and open to all parents of LHS seniors.

American Legion suspects it was targeted by IRS
The American Legion in Perryton, Texas, is suspecting it was targeted by the IRS. The Legion is a 501(c)(6) organization and is not required to file a return with the IRS. However, the IRS has been sending the Legion notices that it is owed money. The Legion is currently in the process of appealing the IRS's decision. The Legion is also considering legal action against the IRS.

Kansas law enforcement cracking down through Labor Day
Kansas law enforcement is cracking down on drunk driving through Labor Day. The Kansas Department of Transportation (KDOT) is working with law enforcement agencies to reduce the number of drunk driving accidents. KDOT is providing information on the dangers of drunk driving and the consequences of a drunk driving conviction. Law enforcement agencies are also conducting sobriety checkpoints and random breathers to identify and arrest drunk drivers.

NSA admits rare willful surveillance violations
The National Security Agency (NSA) has admitted to rare willful surveillance violations. The NSA is a federal agency responsible for protecting the United States from foreign threats. The NSA has a long history of surveillance operations, and it has been accused of violating the privacy of American citizens. The NSA has admitted to several willful surveillance violations, including the unauthorized collection and dissemination of information about American citizens. The NSA is currently reviewing its surveillance operations to ensure that they are in compliance with the law.

