The meeting will be held in the school cafeteria from 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. on Monday, August 26, at 1200 S. 10th St., Lawrence, KS. For more information, contact the school office at 785-842-2200.

American Legion suspects it was targeted by IRS

The American Legion in Lawrence, Kansas, is reporting that it was targeted by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) in a letter demanding payment of taxes. The letter, dated August 14, 2013, stated that the Legion owed $1,000 in taxes for the year 2012. The Legion's representative, John Smith, stated that the Legion had never received any notice from the IRS regarding this amount. Smith is currently working with the IRS to resolve the matter. The Legion is a 501(c)(6) organization and is not subject to federal income tax.

Kansas law enforcement cracking down through Labor Day

Law enforcement agencies across Kansas are cracking down on impaired driving through Labor Day. The Kansas Department of Transportation (KDOT) is conducting a series of sobriety checkpoints across the state. The checkpoints will be held from August 26 to September 2, 2013. The goal is to reduce the number of impaired drivers on the road and prevent accidents. KDOT is working with local law enforcement agencies to ensure the safety of all motorists.

NSA admits rare willful surveillance violations

The National Security Agency (NSA) has admitted to rare willful surveillance violations. The agency stated that it had received reports of willful violations of its surveillance policies. The violations were rare and occurred in a limited number of cases. The NSA is currently reviewing the cases and taking steps to prevent future violations. The agency is committed to maintaining the highest standards of surveillance and protecting the privacy of its citizens.
