MONOLITHIC MESSAGE
 Local residents reflect on King's Dream 50 years ago

By MICHAEL COOPER
 50 years ago, he walked the aisle of the Lincoln Center in New York City. The man dressed in a white suit, black tie and a white scarf, looking directly at the camera, was Martin Luther King Jr. He was speaking to a crowd of about 100,000 people, including the Rev. Jesse Jackson, the Rev. James Bevel and the Rev. Fred Shuttlesworth. The crowd was cheering and shouting. King was speaking about the dream of a better world, a world where all people are created equal. The dream of a better world, a world where all people are created equal.

San Antonio proposal could bar Christians from city council
 A proposal to amend the city charter in San Antonio has sparked controversy. The proposal would allow the city council to remove members who do not adhere to the city's official religion, Christianity. This has led to concerns about religious freedom and the separation of church and state.

a day in the life of a fireman
 A day in the life of a fireman is a busy one. Firefighters work long hours, often in dangerous conditions. They are responsible for responding to emergencies, extinguishing fires, and providing medical assistance. Their work is essential to the safety and well-being of the community.

Inspecting businesses to hydrants part of community's safety
 Inspecting businesses to hydrants is an important part of community safety. Fire departments conduct regular inspections to ensure that businesses have proper fire safety measures in place. This includes checking fire extinguishers, fire alarms, and fire hydrants. By ensuring that businesses are safe, fire departments can help prevent fires and protect the community.

Liberal Animal Shelter announces change of hours
 The Liberal Animal Shelter has announced a change in its operating hours. The shelter will now be open from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. on weekdays and 12 p.m. to 5 p.m. on weekends. This change is intended to better serve the community and provide more time for people to adopt animals.
