MONOLITHIC MESSAGE

Local residents reflect on King's Dream 50 years ago

50 years ago, an iconic statue of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. was dedicated in the heart of downtown San Antonio. The monument, which stands as a powerful reminder of his enduring legacy, is set to be rededicated on Sept. 3, 50 years after its original unveiling. Local residents gathered for a ceremony to reflect on the impact of King's "I Have a Dream" speech and the progress made since then.
