Local residents reflect on King's Dream 50 years ago

By David Cooper PHOTO BY JEFFREY M. HARRIS

Fifty years ago, he walked the aisle of the Lincoln Memorial in Washington, D.C., and spoke the words that would change the course of American history. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. gave the "I Have a Dream" speech, which inspired millions of people to fight for equality and justice. The speech was a turning point in the American civil rights movement, and it is remembered today as one of the most powerful speeches in history.

San Antonio proposal could bar Christians from city council

By David Cooper

A proposal to amend the city charter in San Antonio has sparked controversy. The proposal would require city council members to be members of a church. This has raised concerns among Christians who are not members of a church. They argue that this would be a violation of the First Amendment. The city council is currently debating the proposal.
