Citizens pull victims out of window

With flames erupting from the roof, a house in the 1000 block of S. 10th St. exploded on Tuesday night, forcing firefighters to pull victims out of a second-story window.

The fire, which started in the kitchen, quickly spread to the living room and then to the roof. Firefighters arrived at 10:15 p.m. and worked for about an hour to contain the fire. The house was completely destroyed.

The fire caused significant damage to the neighborhood. Neighbors were evacuated, and the area was cordoned off. The cause of the fire is still under investigation.
