United Way kicks off 2014 campaign

ABOVE: Volunteers and leaders from the 27 agencies represented by Seward County United Way eat breakfast while listening to 2014 campaign chairman Ryan Valencia at the kickoff this morning at Seward County Community College. The goal for this year's campaign is $240,000, according to United Way director Kay Bartzoff.
INSET: The 2014 chairman of the Seward County United Way campaign, Ryan Valencia, speaks at this morning's kickoff breakfast at Seward County Community College. This year's campaign has a western theme, and both Valencia and Bartzoff were dressed appropriately for the breakfast.
