County tax on utilities?
By David Miles
A change in utility law may mean that the state will be able to charge more for the services that power homes. How much? That's the question. The answer is still unclear. The state is considering a change in the way it calculates the cost of power. It would allow utilities to pass on the cost of the power to their customers. The state is also considering a change in the way it calculates the cost of the power. It would allow utilities to pass on the cost of the power to their customers.
