County tax on utilities?
By Susan Orloff
A change in utility law for some residential areas in the state could mean higher rates for some customers. The new law, which takes effect in 2014, would allow utilities to charge a fee for the use of their services. The fee would be based on the amount of electricity or gas used. The fee would be added to the utility bill. The fee would be in addition to the existing utility rates. The fee would be in addition to the existing utility rates.
