

Experience is what you get when you didn't get what you wanted!
Thursday Prime Rib
 44 Village Plaza • Denver, CO 80246-4400 • Monday - Saturday
 10:00 AM - 10:00 PM • 303-733-1111

Party like it's 1888
College Foundation Party
 Auction set for Saturday

Collision injures woman

On Monday, about 1:15 p.m., emergency responders from Denver Police Department arrived at the intersection of East 17th Ave. and I-225 to find a woman lying on the ground. The woman was transported to a hospital and is expected to survive. The driver of the car involved in the collision was arrested on charges of driving under the influence of alcohol. The driver was taken to the Denver Police Department for processing.

FAIR BOARD SHUFFLE
 Commission chooses to go with late applicant

Three of four incumbents
 reappointed to fair board

The Board of Directors of the Denver Fair Commission has announced the results of its annual election. Three of the four incumbent members were reappointed to the board for another year. The new member of the board is a late applicant who was chosen over several other candidates. The board will meet on September 24th to discuss the future of the fair.

TUESDAY SEPTEMBER 17, 2013
LEADER & TIMES
 Your daily news & views for 127 years

Shooting event coming

The Denver Police Department is sponsoring a shooting event for the community. The event will be held at the Denver Police Training Center on September 23rd. The event is open to all ages and is a great way to learn more about the police and to have fun. The event will include target shooting, air rifle shooting, and a range of other activities. The event is free and open to the public.

Fall means early deadlines for college-bound seniors

Gunman in Navy Yard rampage was hearing voices

Shooting event coming

Students at Grand High School are preparing for the start of the school year. Many students are facing early deadlines for college-bound seniors. The school is offering various resources to help students prepare for the upcoming year. The school is also offering a variety of activities and programs to help students get ready for the new year.

A gunman in a Navy Yard rampage was hearing voices. The gunman was identified as a former Navy employee who was suffering from a mental health issue. The gunman was shot and killed by police officers. The incident has raised concerns about mental health in the workplace. The Navy is currently reviewing the incident to determine what went wrong and how to prevent such incidents in the future.

Colo. flooding evacuees remember items left behind

Elks Club seeking deer hides

The Elks Club is seeking donations of deer hides for its taxidermy program. The program is a great way to help students learn about taxidermy and to provide a service to the community. The club is currently accepting donations of deer hides from all sources. The hides should be clean and free of any damage. The club is also accepting donations of taxidermy supplies and equipment. The club is located at 1234 Main St., Denver, CO. For more information, contact the club at 303-555-1234.

Evacuees from Colorado flooding are remembering items left behind. Many people who were evacuated from their homes are still struggling to recover from the disaster. They are remembering the items they left behind and the lives they lost. The community is offering various resources to help evacuees recover from the disaster. The community is also offering a variety of activities and programs to help evacuees get back on their feet.

