

Experience is what you get when you didn't get what you wanted!
Thursday Prime Rib
At Village Plaza & Market, 400 E. 10th St. • Monday - Saturday
Make us your favorite place to eat! We're open 11:30am - 10:00pm.

Party like it's 1888
College Foundation Party
Auction set for Saturday

On Saturday, about 125 of our community members will gather for the 1888 College Foundation Party. The event will feature a silent auction, live music, and a cash bar. The party will be held at the historic 1888 building, which is currently under renovation. The event is free and open to the public. For more information, contact the College Foundation at 303.441.1234.

Collision injures woman

On Monday, about 12:15 p.m., a collision occurred on Interstate 25 near the intersection of Interstate 70. A 2011 Ford Focus was struck from behind by a 2012 Chevrolet. The driver of the Ford, a 32-year-old woman, was injured and taken to a local hospital. The driver of the Chevrolet was not injured. The cause of the collision is under investigation. The scene was closed for about 30 minutes. For more information, contact the Colorado State Patrol at 303.441.1234.

FAIR BOARD SHUFFLE
Commission chooses to go with late applicant
Three of four incumbents
reappointed to fair board

The Colorado State Fair Board has selected a new chairperson and reappointed three of its four members. The board is responsible for overseeing the state's largest annual event. The new chairperson is a late applicant who was chosen over several other candidates. The reappointed members have served on the board for several years. The board will meet regularly to discuss the fair's operations and future plans. For more information, contact the Colorado State Fair at 303.441.1234.

TUESDAY SEPTEMBER 17, 2013
LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & views for 127 years

Opinion: How do we measure success? The answer is not always clear. Success can be measured in many ways, including financial gain, personal achievement, and social contribution. It is important to find a balance between these different measures of success. For more information, contact the Leader & Times at 303.441.1234.

Fall means early deadlines for college-bound seniors

As the fall semester begins, college-bound seniors are facing a series of deadlines. These deadlines include submitting applications, paying tuition, and registering for classes. It is important for students to stay organized and meet these deadlines to ensure a smooth transition to college. For more information, contact the college counseling center at 303.441.1234.

Gunman in Navy Yard rampage was hearing voices

A gunman who opened fire in the Navy Yard in Washington, D.C., on Monday was reportedly hearing voices. The gunman, who is a 32-year-old man, was shot and killed by police officers. The shooting occurred in a crowded area and resulted in several injuries. The cause of the shooting is under investigation. For more information, contact the FBI at 303.441.1234.

Colorado evacuees remember items left behind

As Colorado evacuees return to their homes, many are remembering the items they left behind. These items include clothing, furniture, and personal belongings. The evacuation was a difficult experience for many people, and it is important for them to have their belongings back. For more information, contact the Colorado State Office of Emergency Management at 303.441.1234.

Elks Club seeking deer hides

The Elks Club is seeking deer hides for its annual program. The hides will be used for a variety of purposes, including taxidermy and education. The club is interested in hides from deer that were killed in the state. For more information, contact the Elks Club at 303.441.1234.

Colorado evacuees remember items left behind

As Colorado evacuees return to their homes, many are remembering the items they left behind. These items include clothing, furniture, and personal belongings. The evacuation was a difficult experience for many people, and it is important for them to have their belongings back. For more information, contact the Colorado State Office of Emergency Management at 303.441.1234.