

Friends help you move. Real friends help you move bodies.
Come watch WAGON WHEELS on Channel 10 at 8:30pm on Sept. 23. Spokane might be the most fun WAGON WHEELS in town. WAGON WHEELS is FREE to watch.

Families submit busing petition to district
School board meets tonight
By NICKI CLARK

Spokane Public Schools is looking for input from parents and community members on a proposed bus route change for the 2014-15 school year. The district is currently reviewing a petition from the Northside area, which is asking for a new bus route to be established. The petition was submitted to the district's Board of Education on Sept. 17. The board will meet on Sept. 23 at 7 p.m. to discuss the petition. The board will also discuss other items on the agenda, including a proposed change to the district's calendar. The board will meet at the district's Board of Education, 1000 W. Main Ave., Spokane. For more information, visit www.spokane.k12.wa.us.

DUCKS ON THE POND?
Winners claim $10,000
PAGE 4

TOURNEY CHAMPS
Lady Redkins win six straight at home tournament in class
PAGE 10

Red Cross to thank Helmkes with come-and-go reception
By NICKI CLARK

The Red Cross will be honoring a Spokane-area woman who has spent the last 15 years of her life helping the organization. The reception will be held on Sept. 23 at 6 p.m. at the Red Cross, 1000 W. Main Ave., Spokane. The reception will be a "come-and-go" event, meaning that guests are not required to stay for the entire evening. The reception will be held in the Red Cross's main meeting room. For more information, visit www.redcross.org.

Woman who shot husband 4 times sentenced to prison
By NICKI CLARK

A Spokane-area woman who shot her husband four times in the chest and abdomen in 2008 has been sentenced to 18 months in prison. The woman, 34, was found guilty of second-degree murder and three counts of assault. She was sentenced to 18 months in the Spokane County Jail. She will be eligible for parole after 9 months. Her attorney, David J. Smith, said that his client is "pleading guilty to the crimes she committed and is sorry for what happened." For more information, visit www.spokanejournal.com.

Experts: KU prof's case raises legal questions
By NICKI CLARK

A University of Kansas professor's case has raised legal questions about the university's policies on sexual harassment. The professor, who is a tenured faculty member, was accused of sexual harassment by a student. The university's policies on sexual harassment are unclear, and the professor's case has raised questions about the university's policies on sexual harassment. The professor's case has raised legal questions about the university's policies on sexual harassment. For more information, visit www.ku.edu.

PARTY LIKE IT'S THE 1980s
Party at Spokane Public Schools is looking for input from parents and community members on a proposed bus route change for the 2014-15 school year. The district is currently reviewing a petition from the Northside area, which is asking for a new bus route to be established. The petition was submitted to the district's Board of Education on Sept. 17. The board will meet on Sept. 23 at 7 p.m. to discuss the petition. The board will also discuss other items on the agenda, including a proposed change to the district's calendar. The board will meet at the district's Board of Education, 1000 W. Main Ave., Spokane. For more information, visit www.spokane.k12.wa.us.

Flood in NM washes up mysterious casket
By NICKI CLARK

A mysterious casket was found in a flood in New Mexico. The casket was found in a flood in New Mexico. The casket was found in a flood in New Mexico. The casket was found in a flood in New Mexico. For more information, visit www.ku.edu.

3 TIMES A CHARM
Spokane-area woman who shot her husband four times in the chest and abdomen in 2008 has been sentenced to 18 months in prison. The woman, 34, was found guilty of second-degree murder and three counts of assault. She was sentenced to 18 months in the Spokane County Jail. She will be eligible for parole after 9 months. Her attorney, David J. Smith, said that his client is "pleading guilty to the crimes she committed and is sorry for what happened." For more information, visit www.spokanejournal.com.

1000 W. Main Ave., Spokane, WA 99201 • Phone: (509) 325-1100 • Fax: (509) 325-1101 • www.spokanejournal.com