

Friends help you move. Real friends help you move bodies.
Come watch WAGON WHEELS on Channel 10 at 8:30pm on Sept. 23. Spokane High school team wins state championship in volleyball competition.

Families submit busing petition to district
School board meets tonight
By NICKI CLARK

Spokane families are looking for a way to get their children to school safely and on time. A petition to the school district is being circulated to get the school board to consider a bus route that would serve the area around the school.

DUCKS ON THE POND?
Winners claim $10,000
PAGE 4

TOURNEY CHAMPS
Lady Redkins win six straight at home tournament in chess
PAGE 10

Red Cross to thank Helmkes with come-and-go reception
By NICKI CLARK

The Red Cross will be holding a "come-and-go" reception for Helmkes on Monday, Sept. 23, at the Red Cross building, 1000 N. 10th St. in Spokane. The reception will be from 5:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. and will feature a dinner, a presentation of awards, and a presentation of a certificate of appreciation to Helmkes.

Woman who shot husband 4 times sentenced to prison
By NICKI CLARK

A Spokane woman who shot her husband four times in the chest and back in 2011 has been sentenced to 18 months in prison. The woman, 34, was found guilty of second-degree murder and was sentenced to 18 months in prison and a $10,000 fine.

Experts: KU prof's case raises legal questions
By NICKI CLARK

Spokane University professor's case raises legal questions, experts say. The case involves a professor who was accused of sexual harassment and was later found guilty of the same. The case has raised questions about the legal process and the role of the university in such cases.

PARTY LIKE IT'S THE 1980s
By NICKI CLARK

Spokane University students are having a party like it's the 1980s. The party is being held at the university and is expected to be a big success. The party is being held to raise money for a charity and is expected to be a big success.

Flood in NM washes up mysterious casket
By NICKI CLARK

A mysterious casket was washed up on a beach in New Mexico after a flood. The casket was found on a beach and was believed to be the remains of a person who had died in the flood. The casket was found on a beach and was believed to be the remains of a person who had died in the flood.

3 TIMES A CHARM
By NICKI CLARK

Spokane University students are having a party like it's the 1980s. The party is being held at the university and is expected to be a big success. The party is being held to raise money for a charity and is expected to be a big success.

1000 N. 10th St., Ste. 100 • Spokane • Welcome to the new and improved L&R. When you can't get the printed version go to www.leadertimes.com LEADER & TIMES