

Friends help you move. Real friends help you move bodies.
Come watch WAGON WHEELS on Channel 10 at 8:30pm on Sept. 23. Spokane might be the most fun WAGON WHEELS in town. WAGON WHEELS is FREE to watch.

Families submit busing petition to district
School board meets tonight
By NICKI CLARK

Spokane Public Schools is looking for input from parents and staff on a proposed bus route change for the 2014-15 school year. The district is currently reviewing a petition from the 10th Ward families who are requesting a new bus route for the area. The petition was submitted to the Board of Education on Sept. 17. The board will meet on Sept. 23 at 7:30 p.m. at the Board of Education Conference Room, 1000 W. Main, Spokane. The board will discuss the petition and make a decision on whether to approve the route change. The board will also discuss other items on the agenda. For more information, contact the Office of Communications at 800.368.7263 or visit the district website at www.spokane.k12.wa.us.

DUCKS ON THE POND?
Winners claim $10,000
PAGE 4

TOURNEY CHAMPS
Lady Redkins win six straight at home tournament in class
PAGE 10

Red Cross to thank Helmkes with come-and-go reception
By NICKI CLARK

The Red Cross will be holding a "come-and-go" reception to thank the Helmkes family for their generous donation of a new van to the organization. The reception will be held on Sept. 23 at 6:30 p.m. at the Red Cross, 1000 W. Main, Spokane. The Helmkes family donated a new van to the organization to help with their humanitarian efforts. The reception will be open to the public and will include a meal and a presentation to the Helmkes family. For more information, contact the Red Cross at 800.368.7263.

WOMAN WHO SHOT HUSBAND 4 TIMES SENTENCED TO PRISON
By NICKI CLARK

A Spokane woman who shot her husband four times with a handgun has been sentenced to 18 months in prison. The woman, 34, was found guilty of first-degree murder and carrying a dangerous weapon. She was sentenced to 18 months in the Spokane County Jail. The woman's attorney said she is appealing the sentence. The woman was arrested in June 2012 after a neighbor called the police to report a shooting. The woman's husband was found with four gunshot wounds and died in the hospital. The woman was charged with first-degree murder and carrying a dangerous weapon. She was sentenced to 18 months in the Spokane County Jail. The woman's attorney said she is appealing the sentence.

Experts: KU prof's case raises legal questions
By NICKI CLARK

University of Washington experts say a Spokane professor's case raises legal questions about the university's policies on sexual harassment. The professor, who is a faculty member at the University of Washington, was accused of sexual harassment by a student. The university's policies on sexual harassment are being questioned. The university's policies on sexual harassment are being questioned. The university's policies on sexual harassment are being questioned.

PARTY LIKE IT'S THE 1980s
By NICKI CLARK

Spokane Public Schools is celebrating its 100th anniversary with a "Party Like It's the 1980s" event. The event will be held on Sept. 23 at 6:30 p.m. at the Spokane Public Schools Conference Room, 1000 W. Main, Spokane. The event will include a meal and a presentation to the school board. The event will be open to the public and will include a meal and a presentation to the school board. The event will be open to the public and will include a meal and a presentation to the school board.

Flood in NM washes up mysterious casket
By NICKI CLARK

A mysterious casket was washed up on a beach in New Mexico after a flood. The casket was found on a beach in New Mexico after a flood. The casket was found on a beach in New Mexico after a flood. The casket was found on a beach in New Mexico after a flood.

3 TIMES A CHARM
By NICKI CLARK

Spokane Public Schools is celebrating its 100th anniversary with a "3 Times a Charm" event. The event will be held on Sept. 23 at 6:30 p.m. at the Spokane Public Schools Conference Room, 1000 W. Main, Spokane. The event will include a meal and a presentation to the school board. The event will be open to the public and will include a meal and a presentation to the school board.

1000 W. Main, Spokane, WA 99201 • Phone: 800.368.7263 • Website: www.spokaneleader.com • Email: info@spokaneleader.com