COMMENTS: Sydney (AP) — A five-hour delay on Monday's Qantas flight from Sydney to Los Angeles, the longest delay in the airline's history, was caused by a snake found on the plane. The snake was found in the cargo hold of the flight, which was carrying 370 passengers. The snake was found by a crew member who was checking the cargo hold. The snake was found in a container that was supposed to be empty. The snake was found in a container that was supposed to be empty. The snake was found in a container that was supposed to be empty.
