

Generally speaking, you aren't learning much when your mouth is moving

Thursday Before 21h
14 Village Place • Liberal, KS 67342-4242 • Monday - Saturday
9:00 AM - 5:00 PM • 620-233-4444 • www.ksli.com

3-vehicle crash injures 2

Semi, pickup and car collide

Page 3A

Volleyball pits going in at Leete Park

Work continues at Liberal's newest park

Man upset city cut his weeds

By JILL WELLS/STAFF WRITER

The City of Liberal Board of Commissioners announced Monday night it will cut the weeds in the city's newest park, Leete Park, after a man who had been cutting the weeds for several months was told he could no longer do so.

The man, who was not named, had been cutting the weeds in the park for several months. He had been doing so since the park was dedicated in May. The city had not yet had time to schedule the work.

The city's board of commissioners voted 4-1 to allow the man to continue cutting the weeds. The man said he was "relieved" by the decision.

The city's board of commissioners also voted to allow the man to continue cutting the weeds. The man said he was "relieved" by the decision.

KSAT 12/25/13, p. 3A

LEADER & TIMES

WEDNESDAY SEPTEMBER 25, 2013

Your Daily News & Views for $27

FISHING DERBY

Anglers host Saturday

Page 3A

Good Sam to celebrate Founder's Day Tuesday

By JILL WELLS/STAFF WRITER

The Good Samaritan Society is celebrating its 100th anniversary on Tuesday, Sept. 24. The organization was founded in 1913 by Rev. John W. Good, a Methodist minister.

The society is a non-profit organization that provides care for the elderly, disabled, and those in need. It has a long history of service to the community.

The society is celebrating its 100th anniversary with a variety of events, including a luncheon and a concert. The society is grateful for the support of its donors and volunteers.

KSAT 12/25/13, p. 3A

Jean Schodorf to run for Secretary of State

By JILL WELLS/STAFF WRITER

Jean Schodorf, a Liberal resident, announced Monday she will run for Secretary of State in the 2014 election. Schodorf is a former member of the Kansas House of Representatives.

Schodorf has served in the Kansas House for several years. She has been a vocal advocate for education and economic development.

Schodorf said she is running for Secretary of State because she believes in the importance of education and economic development. She said she will continue to serve the people of Kansas if elected.

KSAT 12/25/13, p. 3A

Lawrence will limit city's ability to use drones

By JILL WELLS/STAFF WRITER

The City of Lawrence, Kan., is facing a lawsuit that could limit its ability to use drones. The lawsuit was filed by a man who said he was harassed by a drone.

The man said he was harassed by a drone that was flying over his property. He said the drone was being used to spy on him.

The city of Lawrence has a policy that allows it to use drones for law enforcement and public safety. However, the lawsuit could limit the city's ability to use drones in the future.

KSAT 12/25/13, p. 3A

Flu shots now available at county health department

By JILL WELLS/STAFF WRITER

The County Health Department is offering flu shots to the public at the county health department. The shots are available for free.

The health department is offering flu shots to the public at the county health department. The shots are available for free.

The health department is offering flu shots to the public at the county health department. The shots are available for free.

KSAT 12/25/13, p. 3A

99-year-old Iowa woman gets HS diploma

By JILL WELLS/STAFF WRITER

A 99-year-old Iowa woman received her high school diploma on Monday. The woman, who is the oldest graduate of the school, was honored at a ceremony.

The woman, who is the oldest graduate of the school, was honored at a ceremony. She received her diploma from the school where she graduated in 1913.

The woman, who is the oldest graduate of the school, was honored at a ceremony. She received her diploma from the school where she graduated in 1913.

KSAT 12/25/13, p. 3A

1001 12th St. • Liberal, KS 67342 • When you can't get the printed version, go to www.ksli.com